1. GENERAL REGULATIONS

- 1.1 In the Regional Rugby Championship (hereinafter RRC) participate rugby teams listed in Addition 1 of these Regulations.
Changes and amendments of Addition 1 of these Regulations are done by the RRC Board by absolute majority of votes after the ending of each RRC season, at least one (1) month before the scheduled date of the first match of next RRC season.
- 1.2 The winner of the RRC season gains a right to a title of the Winner of RRC for the ending year of the RRC season and the right of further competition if organized by Rugby Europe.
- 1.3 The matches of RRC are fully covered by World Rugby and Rugby Europe Rules and Regulations, while these Regulations serve only as outline of these acts.
- 1.4 The RRC is competition that is independent of national championships carried out by Participating Unions.
- 1.5 Each Participating Union accepts RRC competition as a regular part of playing season, agrees to adopt National Championships to the RRC schedule and agrees to confirm decisions by RRC Board about penalties for players in their own competitions by signing and submitting proper form letter as presented in Addition 2 of these Regulations to the Competition Commissioner at least seven (7) days before the scheduled date of the first match of the RRC season.

2. COMPETITION MANAGEMENT

- 2.1 RRC competition is managed by the RRC Board that consists of minimum three (3) and maximum seven (7) members.

The mandate of the RRC Board is valid until revoked, which revoking is initiated by written proposal from at least four (4) Participating teams submitted to Competition Commissioner. Election of RRC Board members shall be performed at joint meeting of representatives of Participating teams. At least half of representatives must be present and meeting shall be organized by Competition Commissioner no later than one month after receiving upper mentioned written proposals.

To become elected as a member of RRC Board, Participating team representative must gain more than half votes of all Participating teams at upper mentioned meeting.

RRC Board members must elect among them the Chairman of RRC Board at first meeting after forming of RRC Board.

- 2.2 Direct competition management is assigned to the Competition Commissioner by the Participating teams.

Competition Commissioner is a member of RRC Board. Competition Commissioner cannot be Chairman of RRC Board.

The mandate of the Competition Commissioner is valid until revoked, which revoking is initiated by written proposal from at least four (4) Participating teams submitted to President of RRC Board.

Election of Competition Commissioner shall be performed by majority of votes at joint meeting of representatives of Participating teams. At least half of representatives must be present and meeting shall be organized by Chairman of RRC Board no later than one month after receiving upper mentioned written proposals.

To become elected as a Competition Commissioner, Participating team representative must gain more than half votes of all Participating teams at upper mentioned meeting.

- 2.3 The Chairman of RRC Board is in charge of the administrative matters of the RRC Board and is obliged to distribute Board decisions in writing.

- 2.4 The mode of the RRC Board functioning is agreed upon by all of its members (via telephone conference, correspondence and/or meetings).

- 2.5 Before each match, at least three (3) days before the match, the Competition Commissioner delivers to Participating teams and other parties concerned the written notice (or e-mail) and so inform them on the date, kick-off time and venue of the match, the Match Commissioner, the Referee and Assistant Referees assigned for the match.

- 2.6 After each round or part of the round of competition, Competition Commissioner issues a report on the progress of the competition and all his decisions regarding competition and delivers it to the Participating teams, to the other members of the RRC Board, executive bodies of Participating Unions, referee organizations of Participating Unions and all proposed Match Commissioners.

- 2.7 In this report, Competition Commissioner deals with any other question while adhering to these Regulations, Laws of the Game and World Rugby and Rugby Europe Rules and Regulations.

- 2.8 Any complaint regarding the decisions and the reports of the Competition Commissioner is submitted to the RRC Board.

3. METHOD OF COMPETITION

- 3.1 RRC matches are being played according to the current Laws of the Game of Rugby Union by World Rugby.

- 3.2 RRC competition is being played as a single round-robin tournament.

- 3.3 The match schedule of the tournament is done by the RRC Board by absolute majority of votes after the ending of each RRC season, at least one (1) month before the scheduled date of the first match of next RRC season.
The match schedule of the RRC competition is listed in Addition 3 of these Regulations.
- 3.4 Teams of Participating teams compete in jerseys marked with numbers from 1 to 15 or, with substitutes included, to 23. A team must not have two players wearing a jersey with the same number. All substitutions and replacements must be approved by the Match Referee.
- 3.5 Each Participating team must inform the Competition Commissioner of the colour of their jerseys for following season by written notice or by e-mail at least seven (7) days before the scheduled date of the first match of the RRC season.
- 3.6 The Competition Commissioner will inform all the Participating teams of the jersey colours for following season of all Participating teams by written notice or by e-mail at least five (5) days before the scheduled date of the first match of the RRC season.
- 3.7 The following rules apply to the choice of the colour of the jerseys:
- If the same colour jerseys are applied by both teams, the home team should change the jersey colour. If the home team refuses to change the jersey colour, the home team loses the game due to the organizational oversight.
  - If the guest team wishes to compete in jerseys that are the same colour as the home team jerseys, and that is not the applied jersey colour of the guest team and the home team insists on their jersey colour, the guest team should change the colour of their jerseys. If the guest team does not have another kit, it must agree to play in home team spare kit. If the guest team refuses to play in home teams spare kit, the guest team loses the game due to the organizational oversight.
- 3.8 If Participating team omits to inform Competition Commissioner of the colour of their jerseys by written notice or by e-mail at least seven (7) days before the scheduled date of the first match of the RRC season the colour of their jerseys will be considered as “void”. Participating team with “void” colour of their jerseys is losing any advantage of choosing colour of the jerseys except when two Participating teams with “void” colour of the jerseys play among themselves, then guest team has the advantage of choosing colour of the jerseys.
- 3.9 The match can be played at the venue with the ground with dimensions and markings according to the Laws of the Game, with the area for audience is visibly divided from the playing area. Goal post must be padded with soft material 180 cm high and 15 cm thick.
- 3.10 At the venue or in its immediate vicinity there should be two (2) suitable locker rooms with shower area (warm and cold water), suitable locker room for the referees and a suitable room for medical first aid.
- 3.11 If the venue is not suitable for play according to clauses 3.9 and 3.10, and the home team is unable to rectify the deficiencies in 30 minutes, the match will not be played.
Referee is the sole judge if the venue is suitable for play.
If the referee finds the venue unsuitable for play, he, Match Commissioner and representatives of both teams will write a report, and the Match Commissioner should deliver this report to the Competition Commissioner.
The match not held due to such deficiencies that are not caused by vis major (weather or similar accidents) will be considered lost by home team due to the organizational oversights.
The event of vis major is determined by Match Commissioner.
- 3.12 Every match must be reported to the local police authorities.
The home team must present this local police authorities application to the Match Commissioner upon his request.
- 3.13 The following points system will be used in RRC competition:
- Four (4) points for the win, two (2) points for a draw and no (0) points for the loss.

- The team that scores four (4) or more tries in a match will be awarded one (1) bonus point, regardless if this team won or lost the match.
- The team that loses a match by seven (7) or less points will be awarded one (1) bonus point.
- For the match that is lost due to the organizational oversight, the team is awarded no (0) points and is fined with 1.000,00 € (a thousand Euro).
- A team that forfeits a match will receive minus three (-3) points and will be fined with 1.000,00 € (a thousand Euro).
- A team that forfeits two (2) matches will be expelled from further competition. All forfeited games will be declared as lost by 20:0 for the opponent who will get four (4) for win and no bonus points.

3.14 The classification is defined so that the team with more points takes a better place. In the event of two or more teams with the same number of points, the teams will be classified according to the following:

- Total points differential in all of the matches played.
- Total number of tries scored in all of the matches played.
- Less sent-off players in all of the games played.
- Less yellow card bins in all of the games played.

3.15 Withdrawal of the Participating team from the RRC competition will be sanctioned by the RRC Board decision.

4. PERIOD OF COMPETITION

4.1 RRC competition is played according to the match schedule is listed in Addition 3 of these Regulations and announced by the Competition Commissioner.

4.2 All matches are played on Saturday or Sunday after noon (12 o'clock). Exceptionally, the matches can be played before noon upon agreement of both participating teams.

4.3 Due to vis major and upon agreement of both Participating teams and information to the Competition Commissioner, a match can be played on another day, but this day must be after the previous round of competition and before the following round of competition as stated in the schedule.

4.4 Home team is obliged to inform about venue and kick-off time at least seventy two (72) hours before match kick-off following entities:

- Away team,
- Competition Commissioner,
- Match Commissioner and
- Referees.

5. PLAYER ELIGIBILITY

5.1 Players aged 18 (eighteen) years or older are eligible to play for Participating teams in RRC. Identity of and eligibility of a player to play for a Participating team is proved by competitor registration card issued by the Participating Union. According to health regulations, the registration card must contain or have attached the medical verification that the player is fit to play. On the day the player is taking part in a match, this medical verification must not be older than six (6) months.

5.2 A player younger than eighteen (18) years may play for a Participating Club if:

- He can prove his Identity of and eligibility of a player to play for a Participating team by competitor registration card issued by the Participating Union, and
  - He is aged seventeen (17) years old on the day the match is played, and
  - A valid medical statement (by medical committee of three members or by a specialized medical institution) that a player is physically and mentally fit to play for a senior team is delivered to the Competition Commissioner, and
  - Medical verification for this player (as stated in 5.1) is not older than three (3) months.
- 5.3 A player younger than eighteen (18) years must not play in front or second row of a scrum.
- 5.4 At least two (2) days before the scheduled date of the first match of the RRC season, every Participating team must submit to the Competition Commissioner a list of minimum twenty-six (26) and maximum fifty (50) players that will compete for the Participating team in the RRC season.
Among those players on each list there must be at least five (5) front row players and three (3) second row players.
All players that will compete for the Participating team must have valid competitor registration card issued by the Participating Union of the Participating team whose list that is.
This list may be subject to change in the following cases:
- The player leaves the Participating team competing in RRC (removal from the list), or
  - The player arrives to a Participating team competing in RRC (adding to the list unless a 50 player quota is used), or
  - The player becomes eligible to play in RRC by becoming eighteen (18) years of age in the following calendar year (adding to the list unless a 50 player quota is used).
- 5.5 A player that was registered for one Participating team during one RRC season cannot be registered to play for another Participating team in the same RRC season.

6. MATCH REPORT

- 6.1 The Match report form is the same for all Participating teams and for all RRC matches. The Match report form will be delivered to each Participating team by the Competition Commissioner at least five (5) days before the scheduled date of the first match of the RRC season.
- 6.2 During a match, Match report form is filled by Match Commissioner or the person authorized by Match Commissioner.
- 6.3 Match Report is sent to the Competition Commissioner by e-mail or fax. Competition Commissioner distributes this report to the match referee, both Participating teams and both Participating Unions.

7. MATCH COMMISSIONER

- 7.1 For each match a Match Commissioner is appointed by the Competition Commissioner. Match Commissioner is selected from the "List of qualified commissioners" submitted by the Participating Unions.
- 7.2 Each Participating Union, at the request of Competition Commissioner must assign a Match Commissioner for a pertinent game. This Match Commissioner must be qualified according to World Rugby and Rugby Europe Rules and Regulations.
- 7.3 This request by Competition Commissioner to Participating Union must be applied at least three (3) weeks ahead of the time the match is scheduled.
- 7.4 Match Commissioner is entitled to a fee for his duties and travel expenses as set by Addition 4 of these Regulations.

- 7.5 If due to vis major the Match Commissioner is unable to perform his duty, he will be replaced by his substitution.
- 7.6 Members of RRC Board, excluding Competition Commissioner, may not be RRC Match Commissioners.
- 7.7 Match Commissioner will perform his duty according to these Regulations, Laws of the Game, as well as World Rugby and Rugby Europe Rules and Regulations.
- 7.8 As per standard procedure in international matches according to World Rugby and Rugby Europe Rules and Regulations, Match Commissioner is authorized to disciplinary sanction players sent off by the referee during the game.
Immediately after the match, the Match Commissioner will organize a separate hearing of each sent off player and other persons he deems necessary, and will adjudicate the sanction.
- 7.9 Immediately after the match, the Match Commissioner must send the Match Report to the Competition Commissioner by fax or e-mail, and then send it with any other pertinent documents or statements by regular mail to the address of the Competition Commissioner. If the host is unable to make available the fax machine or the computer with internet access, the Match Commissioner must find it available elsewhere. In this case, the costs of use of fax or computer will be covered by the Match Commissioner from his fee for his duty. All postage costs are covered by the Match Commissioner from his fee.
- 7.10 Among other duties, the Match Commissioner must make sure that there are no unauthorized persons on the field of play and the area for reserve players.
- 7.11 In a special separate report enclosed to the Match report, the Match Commissioner will describe any and all behaviour or actions by the participants of the match, players, coaches, Participating team officials or any other officials that is not in accordance with the game of rugby. This should especially cover any verbal or physical abuse of referee, assistant referees or any other officials. Match Commissioner should demand disciplinary actions by RRC Board against such persons.
- 7.12 If the assigned Match Commissioner is not present at a match, his duties will be carried out by the referee of the match. In this case, the disciplinary adjudication will be carried out by the Competition Commissioner who must make his arbitration within seven (7) days.
- 7.13 During the game, the Match Commissioner must have available these Regulations and other instructions and regulations needed for application.

8. REFEREES

- 8.1 Generally, all matches are officiating by the referees from a third country. Standby referee will also be nominated. Referees and Standby referees can be nominated only from "Referee list" which is delivered by referee organizations of Participating Unions.
- 8.2 The referees are nominated by the RRC Referee Committee that is elected and dismissed by the RRC Board. The RRC Board selects the members of RRC Referee Committee from the representatives of referee organizations of Participating Unions. The RRC Referee Committee is presiding by the President elected by the Committee members amongst themselves. The RRC Referee Committee is in charge of referee supervision and actions in case of breach of referee code.
- 8.3 RRC Referee Committee takes part in appeals to matches should the appeal be made due to material breach of the laws of the game. In such a case, the finding of a RRC Referee Committee is decisive.
- 8.4 Participating teams from the same city can agree to have a referee from this city. This written agreement must be submitted to the referee organization of their Union prior to the process of referee nomination.
- 8.5 For each match two (2) Assistant referees are nominated by RRC Referee Committee.

- 8.6 Assistant referees can be nominated only from “Assistant referee list” which is delivered by referee organizations of Participating Unions.
Both Assistant referees must be qualified referees.
- 8.7 Referee and Assistant referees are entitled to a fee and travel expenses as set by Addition 4 of these Regulations.
- 8.8 In case of referee or his substitution being unable to referee a match, the referee regulations of the Participating Union covering the venue will be respected.
- 8.9 If RRC Referee Committee finds the referees nominated by Participating Union referee organizations insufficient in skill or numbers, at a request of a Participating Union, referees from unions not part of RRC and licensed by their home unions may be nominated for RRC matches.

9. APPEAL TO A MATCH PLAYED

- 9.1 Appeal to a played match is submitted by the Participating team to the Competition Commissioner within forty eight (48) hours of the end of the match. The appeal must be announced in the Match Report or announced to the Competition Commissioner in writing within the twenty four (24) hour of the end of the match.
The receipt for the appeal fee of 150 € (hundred and fifty Euro) must be enclosed to the appeal.
If no such receipt is enclosed, the appeal will not be taken into consideration.
- 9.2 If the appeal is found justified, the appeal fee is returned to the Participating team.
- 9.3 Competition Commissioner will rule on the appeal and inform the RRC Board and both Participating teams involved within the five (5) days of the delivery of all pertinent documents.
- 9.4 The appeal on the ruling of the Commissioner can be submitted by Participating team involved only to the RRC Board within the five (5) days of notification about upper mentioned Competition Commissioner’s ruling.
- 9.5 The RRC Board will rule on this appeal within the reasonable time not longer than fourteen (14) days. The RRC Board ruling cannot be subject to appeal.

10. DISCIPLINARY PROCEDURE

- 10.1 Referee may use a yellow card to caution a player for misconduct and temporary suspend him for a period of ten (10) minutes.
- 10.2 If a player repeats an offence, referee may use a red card to send off such a player.
- 10.3 Red card may be used directly, without the prior use of yellow card.
- 10.4 Sent off player must leave the playing enclosure and go to changing rooms or the area for the audience.
- 10.5 After a match, a player that is sent off must attend the hearing and disciplinary ruling as stated in 7.8.
- 10.6 If a player is sent off, immediately after the match the referee must submit a report to the Match Commissioner (Laws of the Game 6.A.12).
- 10.7 Upon receiving a Sent off report immediately after the match, Match Commissioner will hear out the sent off player, referee, representatives of both teams and other persons he deems necessary, make notes of these hearings, and announcing his ruling (sanctioning or vindicating the player) according to the World Rugby Recommended Sanctions (Addition 5 of these Regulations).
- 10.8 The ruling takes effect immediately.
- 10.9 Sanctioned player must not take part in any rugby match during sanction period.

- 10.10 The Match Commissioner may overrule the referees report thus vindicating the player.
- 10.11 Complete documentation of the hearing the Match Commissioner will deliver to the RRC Board.
- 10.12 Competition Commissioner keeps record of all disciplinary sanctions and sets the date of their expiry according to World Rugby Regulations.
- 10.13 Competition Commissioner keeps record of all temporary sanctions (yellow cards) and upon third temporary suspension, according to the World Rugby Regulations, reports such case to RRC Board that makes a ruling regarding the sanction.
- 10.14 Match Commissioners ruling and Competition Commissioners decision of 10.13 may be subject to an appeal by any involved party. This appeal must be submitted in written form to the RRC Board within three (3) days of pertinent ruling and the RRC Board will rule on this appeal within fourteen (14) days.
RRC Board ruling is final.
- 10.15 In case of sending off of Participating team's officials, RRC Board will carry out the procedure similar to the Match Commissioner hearing in all misconduct reports submitted by Match Commissioner. In such cases World Rugby Recommended Sanctions cover all activities associated with the sport of rugby. In case of severe misconduct, the RRC Board will submit a report to Rugby Europe.
- 10.16 If a team leaves the playing area during RRC match and refuses to continue the match, pertinent Participating team is automatically penalized by expulsion from RRC and all other competitions organized by or related to RRC for the period of one (1) year. The person responsible for the team leaving the playing area during RRC match and refusal to continue the match will be penalized by three (3) years suspension from RRC and all other competitions or activities organized by or related to RRC.

11. MEDICAL REGULATIONS

- 11.1 In addition to sections 5.1 and 5.2 of these Regulations, the game host must respect all other World Rugby regulations covering the medical issues.
- 11.2 A medical doctor must be present at every match.
No match will begin without the presence of a medical doctor and a clear approach for medical emergency vehicle.
If there is no medical doctor present at the playing enclosure, the match will not take place and the home team loses a match due to organizational oversight.
- 11.3 During a match home team must provide the use of medical emergency vehicle if necessary.
- 11.4 All costs of the medical services, domestic or abroad, due to injuries of Participating team player or the Participating Club official during or related to RRC match will be borne by the his/her Participating team or will be covered by their insurance, should they have it.
All costs regarding the accident of the Participating team player or the Participating team official during or related to RRC match will be borne by his/her Participating team or will be covered by their insurance, should they have it.
- 11.5 All serious injuries and particularly those that require hospital treatment must be entered in the Match report by the Match Commissioner.
Competition Commissioner keeps record of such injuries and delivers a report thereof to the Medical committee of Rugby Europe.

- 11.6 If RRC Board, Participating Union, home national sport association or international rugby organization choose to perform an anti-doping control at the RRC match or in the Participating team regardless of the match, and if such control is performed according to the anti-doping regulations of International Olympic Committee (IOC) which are identical to the World Rugby and Rugby Europe anti-doping regulations, all summoned players must immediately allow the control to take place.
Sportsperson who refuses be subjected to anti-doping control at the competition or regardless thereof, will be considered positive and will automatically be suspended for the period of two (2) years.
- 11.7 In case of anti-doping control, the Match Commissioner will make a note in the Match report, while Competition Commissioner notifies Rugby Europe thereof.
